

Continuation of your previous task Discuss among your group members and pick a user category and Implement the PHP validation based on the corresponding validation rule All Fields are required. Create a folder name control and create a file name reg_control then write all the PHP validation logic inside it.

User Category 1:

- Name Should be only contain Alphabets
- Email Address field is required, and the input must contain @ and .xyz domain
- Password field is required, and it must contain one numeric character
- Validate checkbox fields which user must check at least one checkbox.

User Category 2:

- Name Should be at least 4 characters
- Email Address field is required, and the input must contain aiub.edu domain
- Validate drop down/select fields which user must select one option.
- Phone Number field must contain only numbers

User Category 3:

- Name Should be maximum 50 characters long
- Password field must be at least 6 character long and it must contain one Lowercase character
- Validate radio fields which user must check at least one radio button.
- Phone Number field must start with 0

User Category 4:

- Name field should not contain any numbers
- Password field is required and it must contain one of the special character(@ or # or $ or &)
- Validate a Date type field where must enter a valid date
- Phone Number field must not be longer than 11 digits.